

Developing the Role of the EAL Co-ordinator

Wednesday 22nd June 2022 9.15am – 2.30pm, £135

This online session is aimed at supporting both new and more experienced EAL co-ordinators. EAL co-ordinators play an integral role in developing whole-school systems that support EAL learners. It is therefore essential that EAL co-ordinators have a clear understanding of a range of strategies to support teachers and teaching assistants in meeting the needs of all EAL learners.

Course Structure:

The course will support with induction, identification of EAL and the pupil's primary needs, using assessments to support the development of language targets and tracking progress. In addition, we will look at developing an EAL policy, introduce inclusive planning frameworks that may be used by teachers and raise awareness of some strategies that can be used for EAL learners.

Aims:

- To evaluate current school systems for induction, assessment and tracking of learners with EAL.
- To develop whole school monitoring systems for EAL provision.
- To raise awareness of inclusive planning tools which could be used to support teachers to embed an explicit focus on language development for learners who use EAL.
- Raise awareness of strategies and resources that can be used to support learners who use EAL.
- Consider how EAL co-ordinators can support teachers to identify language demands and plan to meet the needs of EAL learners.

The course will be held on Microsoft Teams. To reserve your place please book via this link EAL Co-ordinator booking form
